BIGLERVILLE MAN KILLED IN SHAFT

Charles Rote Meets almost Instant Death in Plant of Cold Storage Company at Biglerville. Caught and Unable to Escape.

Charles Rote, an employee, was almost instantly killed at the cold storage plant at Biglerville shortly after ten o'clock this morning when he was caught between the floor of a freight elevator and the top ceiling of the building. It was Mr. Rote's last day of work at the plant for this winter and he would have finished there in several hours had not the accident occurred.

The last carload of fruit stored in the big building was removed this week and several men were busy cleaning up the place. Albert Washington, the manager, was running the one elevator and Mr. Rote had charge of the other. As Mr. Washington was walking through the building he noticed that the elevator which was being operated by Mr. Rote was going up too rapidly and he grasped a rope to stop it but was too late and the unfortunate man was caught at the top of the shaft.

Mr. Washington quickly telephoned for Dr. Hildebrand but death followed in several minutes. The chief injury was across the region of the heart and a rupture there is supposed to have caused practically instant death. The accident was caused, it is thought, by Mr. Rote having his attention diverted by talking to a boy as he passed the sixth floor of the building. He evidently did not realize his danger and the fatal crash came before he could stop the lift.

Mr. Rote was in the employ of the company operating the cold storage plant. In the winter he worked about the plant and in summer worked on one of D. N. Minnick's farms, about a mile and a half northwest of Biglerville where he resided. He came to this county about three years ago from Trout Run, Lackawanna county, and was a veteran of the Spanish American War. He also served several enlistments in the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Rote was about thirty eight years old. He leaves his wife and five children, Fred, Torrence, Ardella Arthur and Henry, all at home. One brother, John Rote, lives in Biglerville. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

TOWN COUNCIL'S APRIL MEETING

Board of Health Wants an Ordinance Covering Contagious Disease Quarantines. Other Business before Council.

The town council met in its regular session on Tuesday evening and, after hearing several petitions and transacting routine business, adjourned to April 10 when the street paving ordinance and several other measures will come up for action.

Dr. Stewart, representing the board of health, asked council to enact into an ordinance various regulations regarding the quarantining and treatment of cases of communicable disease. For some time the board has been acting under state laws but now deems it best to have an ordinance adopted along the lines laid out by the state laws and to act under this, the enforcement then being considerably easier. The matter was referred to the ordinance committee and the borough attorney to prepare an ordinance covering the matter. The board of health asked for the remainder of their appropriation for the year and it was granted.

Residents of North Washington street and vicinity petitioned council for a gas or electric light at the middle of the second block on that street. The question was referred to the light committee.

A request was received from J. A. Ring for permission to build a portico at his hotel extending out almost to the 11 foot pavement line on the square. The highway committee was instructed to investigate the matter and report at the meeting on April 10.

Reuben Rupp asked permission to put a roof over his porch at his home on North Washington street. It was thought that the improvement would be in conflict with the ordinance on such matters and the request was refused.

The condition of the alley between the George Stock property and the People's Cash Store was again brought to the attention of council and the secretary instructed to send notices to the parties offering to remove the ashes and discontinue the practice of obstructing that thoroughfare, the police to ascertain names of offenders and report them to the secretary.

Burgess Holtzworth reported collections of $15.00. The treasurer reported a balance in the general fund of $233.74 and in the special fund of $393.86.

Mr. Codori reported that a drag had been used successfully on various streets of town about twenty blocks being covered at a cost of $4.00. Two horses were used part of the time and three horses the balance.

FEDERAL AID TO BE $50,000

National House of Representatives Passes with Much Enthusiasm Large Appropriation for Gettysburg Celebration.

The spirit with which the southern states are taking up the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg celebration was signally shown on Tuesday when Representative Lamb, of Virginia, the only Confederate veteran in the National House of Representatives made a spirited appeal for the passing of an appropriation of $50,000 toward the event.

Following Congressman Lamb's speech which was greeted with great applause the House passed a bill appropriating $50,000 to enable the federal government to participate in the anniversary while the members cheered and a scene of great enthusiasm followed.

The appropriation, which had been passed by the Senate and will receive the signature of President Taft, will be used for bringing a large detachment of Regulars here for the event and for the many other expenses which will be found necessary in the part of the federal government in the four days' celebration.

Practically all the states in the union will contribute toward their part in the event, many of the appropriations having already passed.

MONT ALTO SANITARIUM LARGEST IN THE WORLD

The new children's building at the State Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Mont Alto was opened Tuesday and preparations have been made to receive one hundred children who are arriving from all sections of the state. They are all under fourteen years of age.

The results which have been achieved in the treatment of children at Mont Alto have led Commissioner of Health Dixon to rush the work on this latest addition to the big sanitarium. Children respond more quickly to the treatment than their elders and the most encouraging results have been obtained in arresting the disease.

The addition is 200 feet by 40 with open air solaria for school and play on all floors at both ends. Large well ventilated play rooms have been provided on the top floor for use when the weather is excessively stormy.

Dr. Dixon has planned the wards so that the children will be in sight of their caretakers at all times of the day or night.

With the enlargement of its bed capacity the new building allows, Mont Alto has become the world's largest sanitarium for the treatment of tuberculosis.

TAFT MEN ARE SURE DESPITE CONTESTS

Claim Majority of National Committee With Him.

Washington, April 3.—Charles D. Hillis secretary to the president, is sued a statement declaring a majority of the Republican national committee was aligned with President Taft and against Colonel Roosevelt. The statement follows:

"The members of the national committee, in overwhelming majority, are supporting the candidacy of President Taft. This was demonstrated by letters, telegrams, interviews and public statements, in which the members have made their position perfectly clear.

"We are confident that the committee will decide all contests fairly and on their merits. All we ask is that we shall be given a real square deal.

"But President Taft's renomination will not depend upon the decision of the contests. He will have a large majority of uncontested delegates."

GUARD READY IF PRESIDENT CALLS

The N. G. P. May be Sent to Mexico.

CAN MOBILIZE QUICKLY

Harrisburg Arsenal Said to Have Orders to Place Militia on War
Footings.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3.—It was learned at the state arsenal that orders have been issued to place the National Guard on a war footing. This action followed repeated reports that the militia might be called out soon for services on the Mexican border or in Mexico.

Adjutant General Stewart said that preparations have been made for the guardsmen to concentrate in twenty-four hours if called.

"War department officials know that we can concentrate the division of Pennsylvania's National Guard at any point within twenty-four hours and have known it for years. I have not made any report of the mobility of the state troops for a long time, but the regular army officers know the board, and what it can do in case it is needed to assist the federal government in Mexico," said General Stewart in talking about the rumors that reports had been made by him to Washington about what this state could furnish in the way of men.

It is pointed out at the capitol that the war department is not only fully informed regarding the conditions in the guard by reason of reports, but because General Stewart is a member of the national militia board, and that furthermore, every organization of the guard has been inspected by regular army officers in the last sixty days, solely to determine efficiency for field service.

While no one at the capitol will make any statement for publication, it is well understood that in the event of President Taft deciding to intervene in Mexico, he would call upon Pennsylvania for volunteers for service. In that event, the guard would be mobilized at Mount Gretna, in all probability, and when the number of men desired was announced, such organizations as might be selected would simply be mustered into federal service, as was done at Camp Hastings in 1895.

The state officials hope that if Pennsylvania is called upon it would not have to send more than half of its guard into the federal service. If more is called new regiments will be raised. The state has half a million dollars ready for emergency service, but it trouble comes with Mexico all expenditures by Pennsylvania would be repaid by Uncle Sam.

FRIGATE SANTEE SLOWLY SINKING

Midshipman's Prison Ship Settles at Wharf.

Annapolis, Md., April 3.—The old wooden frigate Santee, which for years has been used as a place of confinement for midshipmen who were punished for infractions of the rules, began to sink while tied up at the Navy Academy wharf and has dropped eight and a half feet.

The indications are that her bottom has rotted away, and it is likely that she will have to be destroyed. Commander W. C. Cole has taken charge of the ship, and is doing what he can to stop the sinking and preserve the vessel, if possible.

Lieutenant C. A. Richards was officer in charge of the Santee. The sinking of the vessel was noticed by the marine sentry on duty on the wharf. The alarm was promptly given, and the ship's company removed all of the small articles from the vessel. A quantity of stores in the hold were ruined, however.

The vessel continued to sink gradually and the chances are against saving her from destruction. The bottom of the Santee has been rotting for some years, and has undergone repairs on different occasions.

PROGRESS MADE IN ORIENT

Augustus D. Curtis Tells Electric
Club of Advance Made in Electricity in Far East.

"The advanced stage of electricity seen in the orient was one of the greatest surprises I ever had, especially the progress noted in Japan. Even in remote places seldom reached by tourists we found electric plants with the most modern improvements, and though the machinery was mostly American make or American type, the orientals had mastered all of the details of operation."

This statement prefaced an address made by Augustus D. Curtis at the Electric club's first fall meeting, held at Chicago the other day. He recently returned from an oriental trip.

"Being an electrician and interested in electricity," said Mr. Curtis, "it was only natural for me to investigate the progress made in these countries, and it is truly wonderful. In America electricians and illuminating engineers only recently have worked out the problem of indirect lighting—that is, the system of reflection from the lamp to the ceiling and then down—and imagine my surprise to find much of this lighting in the orient, especially in the larger cities of Japan."

QUITE USEFUL ON SILK HAT

Electric Iron Does Away With Necessity of Using Coat Sleeve or Pocket Handkerchief.

As Ed. Howe would say, what has become of the old-fashioned man who used to polish his silk hat on his coat sleeve or with a silk handkerchief? He may not be altogether extinct, but the Simplex French hat iron is surely working a revolution in the methods of keeping a "stovepipe" in order, says the Popular Electricity. The iron is nickel plated and has a wooden handle and of course is electrically heated. The shape of the iron is suitable for reaching every part of the hat brim as well as the crown.

RECORD KEPT BY TELEPHONE

Phonograph so Arranged That Conversation Over Wire May Be Reproduced When Desired.

A reproach which has often been raised against the telephone is that it leaves no trace whatever of the conversation transmitted. Thus, a telephone conversation can never figure in a law suit. It is not surprising, therefore, that for some time past efforts have been made to devise an apparatus by means of which a permanent record can be kept of the words spoken over the telephone, and the phonograph has often been thought of in this connection. According to a note reproduced in La Nature from L'Electricista, Prof. P. Perrotti has just scored a success in this direction. The telephone receiver is composed of two loud speaking telephones; one of these is furnished with the usual mouthpiece; the other is connected with the vibrating membrane of a Pathe phonograph. The current required for this telephone is a little greater than for ordinary installations. The phonograph record can be made to reproduce the speech in the usual manner.

ELECTRICAL NOTES

Wireless weather reports are sent daily from Gibraltar to London.

A fifty-mile telephone cable will soon connect England and Belgium.

The telephone is now used for railroad purposes on 37,000 miles of line.

The average life of telephone poles is 12 years, and 2,650,000 renewals must take place annually.

An electric fly trap, which two Denver men have invented, requires a 450 volt current to operate it.

At Amarillo, Tex., the public is supplied with water pumped by electric motors from 18 wells which are each 300 feet deep.

A new alarm indicator for firemen switches on an incandescent light at a point on a map corresponding with the place from which the alarm is set.

German railroads are experimenting with an electric locomotive headlight, swiveled so that an engineer can throw the rays wherever he wants them.

It requires 190 years to grow a 30-foot cedar pole for telegraph purposes, but there are other poles which answer all purposes which are grown more quickly.

By the erection of a chain of stations for a distance of 1,860 miles up the Congo river it will be possible to send wireless messages all the way across Africa.

ADMITS SHE KILLED 17

Many Louisiana Murders Are Explained.

THE DEATH LIST TOTALS 35

Negro Cult Performed the Rites of "Human Sacrifice" and Whole Families Were Killed.

Lafayette, La., April 3.—In a most amazing confession, Clementine Barnab, a negro, under arrest here, cleared the mystery that has surrounded the murders of seventeen negroes in western Louisiana, and has given clues which are expected to fix the guilt for eighteen others in this state and Texas, which have been charged to the mysterious "axe man."

From her tale, it appears she led a mysterious negro cult, the members of which performed the rites of "human sacrifice." She declared she killed seventeen of the victims with her own hands, according to the police.

The police declare Clementine told her tale of wholesale slaughter with no apparent appreciation that the taking of human life was a crime. She told her part in the thirty-five assassinations, but declined to reveal the names of the members of the mysterious cult that helped her.

The murders have been committed in the last year. As one series of killings was added to another in different towns of West Louisiana and South-east Texas, the authorities decided one mind directed all. The mulatto confessed she was the directing force of the cult known as the "Church of the Sacrifice," which has for its creed the belief that by life sacrifice alone may a person gain immortality.

Before engaging in any of the crimes, Clementine armed herself with a charm or amulet, which she got from a preacher, and which she and other members of her band were assured would protect them from the law. While the exact reason for the murders is not explained to the satisfaction of the authorities, it is believed that the weakened brains of Clementine and her companions were affected by the exhortations they had heard in the "Church of Sacrifice."

Most of the thirty-five assassinations were accomplished in the killing of families of three or four members at one time. In every instance the murder was committed at night. The religious fanatics took possession of a cottage owned by a person marked for slaughter, and a bloody orgy followed. So far as can be determined, no member of the cult suffered death in any of the ceremonies of sacrifice.

She declared that she killed the four members of the Randall family, who met death here last November; four members of the Andrus family, who were killed here a year ago last February; five negroes at Rayne and four negroes at Crowley. The other victims at Lake Charles and in Texas, who were killed since her arrest, were slain in exactly the same manner, and the authorities think that they were victims of the unnamed members of the band of fanatics that aided her in part of her bloody work.

A peculiar feature of the case is that Raymond Barnett, her father, was convicted of the murder of the Andrus family, she being the chief witness against him. Raymond was sentenced to be hanged, but has been granted a new trial. She now declares that her father is entirely innocent of the crime.

Hillsville, Ga., April 3.—Every available man here was summoned to join the outlaw hunters at Volunteer Gap, thirteen miles from here, where Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards are believed to have been located.

Sergeant White and Corporal Harigan, of the Virginia militia, have gone to join the posse. It is believed the two fugitives have been cornered and news of their capture is expected any moment.

FLOOD DAMAGES ARE ENORMOUS

Disaster Threatens Everywhere Along Mississippi.

New Orleans, April 3.—Increasing terror among inhabitants and increasing danger in flood conditions were reported from all towns on the Mississippi river from here to St. Louis.

All possible precautions are being taken to prevent further breaks in levees, but with the river constantly rising anxiety is intense.

Despite the sandbagging of the river walls and other frantic precautions, there is immediate danger of new breaks, threatening hundreds of lives.

Although the constant rise of the past few days gave the people warning of the danger, many hundreds of families have been driven from their homes without being able to save their effects.

Early estimates of property loss occasioned by the flood run well into the millions of dollars.

Town Reported Destroyed.

St. Louis, April 3.—New Madrid, Mo., has been swept away by the waters of the Mississippi river as Johnston, Pa., was destroyed, according to a report received here. The levee guarding the town went out, and a wall of water twenty feet deep swept through the streets. Reports indicate that there was a heavy loss of life.

2000 Homeless in Hickman.

Hickman, Ky., April 3.—Dawn revealed the scene of deluge that obliterated the landscape here when the waters of the Mississippi river breached the West Hickman levee and poured a muddy current eight feet deep through the business streets, the factory and the tenement districts of the town. From hill to hill the river flows, covering farms and flooding stores and factories. The railroad tracks are on the bed of the broad stream. Two thousand persons are homeless.

Two Cousins Die Within Hour.

Allentown, Pa., April 3.—A strange coincidence occurred in the fact that at the same hour John O'Donnell and Miss Ella O'Donnell, cousins and both natives of Hokenauqua, died of pneumonia. The former died at the Allentown hospital, where he had been confined for several days, and Miss O'Donnell passed away in St. Lawrence hospital, New York, where she spent about six months as a nurse.

May Let Swedish Women Vote.

Stockholm, Sweden, April 3.—The Swedish government introduced a bill into parliament extending to women the parliamentary franchise and the right to stand for election to parliament on the same conditions as men. Women, whose husbands have not paid taxes for three years, are excluded from the vote.

MINERS DEMAND RECOGNITION

Sentiment Favors a Stand Pat Policy.

VIEWS ON WAGE INCREASE

Mass Meeting at Nanticoke Declares for Recognition of Union Before 10 Per Cent. Raise.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 3.—Though work has been suspended only two days in the anthracite region, sentiment seems to be crystallizing already among the idle miners in favor of a stand-pat policy with the operators.

At a meeting of miners held at Nanticoke expression was given to this feeling. There were 100 men at the gathering, mostly Polish. The principal speakers were Vice President Ryscavage and National Organizer William Baxter.

The latter in the course of his address asked: "Do you men want to accept a 10 per cent. increase in wages from the operators and go back to work?"

Without a dissenting voice, those present replied: "No, we don't want a 10 per cent. increase, we want recognition."

Vice President Ryscavage also caused somewhat of a sensation when he said: "At the recent conference held between the operators and the scale committee of the miners in New York President Baer made the remark that the miners were not strong enough to strike. A score of miners jumped to their feet at once and stated: 'Well, we'll show him.'"

The meeting at Nanticoke is regarded as significant, as it shows the trend of thought among the so-called foreign mine workers who now constitute such a large percentage of the underground workers in the hard coal field, and there is no question but that the executive officers of the three district boards of the United Mine Workers will be governed largely in their dealings with the heads of the coal companies when they meet in Philadelphia next week on the sentiment that prevails among the rank and file of the organization.

John C. Haddock, independent operator and president of the Plymouth Coal Company, favors recognition of the union, and the building of the organization on a wider scope for the purpose of making it more fraternal and beneficial, so that dependents can be more properly cared for. Mr. Haddock said:

"I believe the union should be recognized. The men have just as much right to organize for protection as the companies. Such steps as are necessary should be taken to create a fund so widows and orphans could be properly cared for. Other organizations are doing this. There should be some means provided for paying the union men sick and death benefits. I believe the companies should pay a part of this money."

No attempt was made to operate the 571 mines in the three hard coal districts, of which this is the principal center, and 170,000 employees are idle. No disorders were reported hereabouts, not many of the miners appearing on the streets because of the inclemency of the weather.

WOMAN FLIES OVER CHANNEL

First of the Fair Sex to Make Flight Accompanies Hamel.

Paris, April 3.—Gustave Hamel, the English aviator, and his passenger Miss Mary Davis, arrived in the former's aeroplane at Issy, on the outskirts of Paris, after flying from London, near London, and across the English channel.

Miss Davis came to Paris after the landing at Issy. She is the first woman to cross the channel in an aeroplane.

Girl Found Murdered on Railroad.

Scranton, Pa., April 3.—Miss Louise Burns, seventeen years old, of Moosic, was found dead on the Delaware and Hudson tracks near Avoca. She had been to Avoca taking music lesson. It is supposed she lost her life in defending herself against attack by some man, who, in the struggle, pushed her under a passing train.

Americans in China Ask Protection

Peking, April 3.—The American legation asked Yuan Shi Kai, president of the Chinese republic, to prevent the soldiers from fulfilling their threat to attack the missions and hospitals of Pao-Ting. Looting continues spasmodically at Pao-Ting, seventy miles southwest of Peking.

Steel Probers Won't Hear Morgan.

Washington, April 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan will not be a witness before the house steel trust investigating committee. After a lively debate in executive session the committee decided it could not hold the hearings open until Mr. Morgan returned from abroad.

Imprisoned Miners Freed.

Tamaqua, Pa., April 3.—After having been imprisoned for thirty-six hours by a fall of coal at No. 8 colliery, John Rubenar, a laborer, was rescued and is practically uninjured. Evan Tonkin, imprisoned at the same time, but rescued shortly after, was fatally injured.

HEREFORDS AS BEEF PRODUCERS.

In the following remarks I intend no disparaging statements to the other breeds—they are all good—and I think it would not take a deep student of animal industry to pick out some trait in each breed that would perhaps excel either of the other beef breeds in that one particular. There is one common ground on which we can all meet, and that is for the betterment of our beef animals generally both on the farm and the range, and can all join hands in the constant fight against the scrub, writes J. E. Painter in Kansas Farmer.

In the above mentioned fight the Hereford scores a big point over all Herefords are a prolific breed. The bulls and cows are all sure and regular breeders. The bulls are active and attentive and remain so until of great age. The cows remain productive often up to fifteen years of age, and many of them are known to have dropped calves at the age of twenty or even twenty-five. A good Hereford bull will sire more calves from a given number of cows in a period of years than any other sort of bull, and a Hereford cow will remain "in business" longer than any other sort. The Hereford pictured shows the characteristic points of good beef cattle.

Rusted Straw Is Better.

Straw affected by red or black rust has a higher feeding value than has straw which is free from rust, according to Professor W. B. Richards. The reason assigned is that the rust has prevented the sap of the plant from going to and developing the grain, and hence rusted straw is not only greener, but has more feeding value. Animals receive no injury from eating rusted straw, and many times it can be used to advantage in winter feeding operations. It should not be used as the entire ration, however, as it has too much cellulose for the digestive apparatus to properly care for, but when fed with bran, oats, roots, alfalfa or other laxative feeds it makes a good winter ration for cattle.

A Premature Question.

When President Elliot of Harvard was in active service as head of the university he was noted among the students for his abrupt and brusque manner. Reports had come to him that one of his young charges was in the habit of absorbing more liquor than was good for him, and President Elliot determined to do his duty and look into the matter.

Meeting the young man under suspicion in the yard shortly after breakfast one day, the president marched up to him and demanded, "Young man, do you drink?"

"Why—why—why," stammered the young man, "why, President Elliot, not so early in the morning, thank you."—Boston Transcript.

Easily Twisted.

An Irishman and his wife were asleep in bed when the wife thought she heard a noise downstairs, which she imagined was made by burglars, and, awakening her husband, she said, "Wake up, Pat; there are burglars downstairs." So Pat arose and hastily dressed himself, but in his haste he put his trousers on backward. Quickly grabbing a lamp, he started down the stairs; but, owing to the trousers being tight, he stumbled on the first step and fell down the whole flight. His wife heard the racket and went to the top of the stairs. "Are you hurt?" she asked. Pat arose and, feeling himself to ascertain if he was hurt, found the way he wore his trousers. "No, darlin', I'm not hurt in the least. But I'm all turned around entirely. I gave me body the devil's own twist."

H. N. GITT

To the Democratic Voters of the Twentieth Congressional District.

Mr. Gitt, who is not an active candidate, has consented to accept the Democratic nomination for congress, if the voters of this district consider him the most logical candidate, and if nominated, will make an aggressive campaign to win.

Mr. Gitt is not only popular in his home town, Hanover, but in what is known as the Democratic belt as well, and is unquestionably the strongest nominee who can be placed on the Democratic ticket, for the further reason that he is also well known throughout the whole of York and Adams counties.

He has always been an active and earnest worker in the interests of Democracy and always anxious to bring about harmony in the party. If there be any Democrat, of whom there ought to be many, who can redeem this district, there can be no doubt that he is one of them. He is a man of affairs, with more general personal knowledge and experience of the agricultural, industrial and commercial interests of this district than any other one man and is undoubtedly well qualified to represent this important congressional district in the House of Congress.

In view of his exceptionally broad, wide and abundant experience on all matters pertaining to the vital issues of the day, he is peculiarly fitted to represent the people of this district, especially the farmer, the mechanic, the working man and the merchant, in congress.

This congressional district for a number of years has been misrepresented in Congress by our present representative, a member of the party in the minority in the district. It is high time that this condition be changed and we believe that Mr. Gitt is the man who, if nominated, can and will bring victory to his party.

We, therefore, appeal to the Democratic voters of this, the 20th congressional district, to vote for Mr. Gitt on April 13th, for we earnestly believe that his nomination will insure the success of our party at the polls in November.

Yours very truly,
Committee of Democrats interested in the success of the Party

SENSIBLE CUSTOM

Spring Best Time to Renew Blood. Spring is nature's season for renewing the life of things, and for sweeping away the impurities that have accumulated in the winter.

This custom of taking a remedy for the blood during spring months is based on hard common sense. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, stands far above all other spring medicines in value because it contains the elements needed to enrich and purify the blood.

J. A. Thiel of Bronx Borough, N. Y., says, "Feeling the need of a good spring medicine to purify my blood and build up my strength I started using Vinol in April. It has done me so much good in every way that I believe it is in all respects just as valuable a remedy as you claim."

We guarantee that Vinol will build up and strengthen all weakened, run down persons. Try Vinol—we will give back your money if it does not satisfy you perfectly. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

To Break Up Cold

Some Advice That Will Save Time and Money

Strong drink and quinine may relieve a cold, but it usually does more harm than good.

To break up a hard cold in either head or chest thousands are using this sensible treatment.

First of all look after your bowels; if they need attention use any reliable cathartic. Then pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe for 5 or 10 minutes the pleasant, soothing, healing vapor.

Do this just before going to bed: your head will feel fine and clear and you'll awake from a refreshing sleep minus a cold in the morning.

For colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma and croup HYOMEI is guaranteed. A fifty cent bottle is all you need to break up a cold and this can be obtained at The People's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

HOUSEKEEPING RUTS.

When are we to be emancipated from the old bugbear of Madam Grundy and the way mother used to do? Mothers ways were good ways, but conditions change. "The laws that in our fathers' days were good" are not the laws for us; so we must get out of the ruts and be able to swing along on high ground.

Is the old-fashioned Monday the best day for washing, or is it the day that has always been used and so we follow the procession? Tuesday is in every way a better day, for if the clothing must be picked up, looked over, mended or stains removed, Sunday is not the day for it. After the day of rest Monday comes full of the many things that were left from the week end. If the laundry work is added to all the rest, it makes too full a day. In homes where the day is used to get the clothing in condition to wash, the work is made much lighter.

Must we always serve potatoes with our dinner or every other meal? Can we not occasionally break away and get out of that rut? Serve hominy, fried bananas or boiled rice.

Do you have the same kind of desert every week or two? There are simply millions of ways of preparing desserts. Have a variety, so that the family do not tire of the same one.

We are always glad of finding an old friend in a new dress. For those who are fond of tripe, this recipe will be acceptable: Cut rounds of tripe with a pall cover in rounds four or five inches across. If it is pickled, add salt, pepper, olive oil and onion juice; and if it is not pickled, a little lemon juice. Let it stand an hour or longer in this marinade, turning often. Then broil delicately, lay on a plate and butter the rough sides generously. Garnish with chopped parsley or cress, and serve two rounds to each person.

When cooking lima beans, add a seasoning of onion and a teaspoonful of curry moistened with a little lemon juice.

KILL ENGLISH STARLINGS

State game wardens have been instructed to keep a sharp watch for flocks of English starlings and to kill them on sight in order to prevent the redacious British bird from becoming fast like its cousin, the sparrow.

Starlings thus far have appeared only in Bucks and other eastern border counties, not far from New Jersey and the numbers have not been great.

Golden Gate Fogs.

The fogs of the Pacific, and especially those on the coast of California and Washington, present some characteristic features of their own. They are low lying, dense and of frequent and regular occurrence, and have been the cause directly and indirectly of a large percentage of marine disasters in the vicinity of San Francisco. Owing to the general movement of the air from the sea toward the land, and the climate of the great interior valley, fog is frequent and well marked. In summer the afternoon sea fog varies in depth from 100 to 1,700 feet, but it rarely reaches far inland.

On some afternoons the velocity of the wind at San Francisco rises with almost clocklike regularity to about twenty-two miles an hour, and a solid wall of fog, averaging 1,500 feet in height, comes through the Golden Gate, causing a fall in temperature to about that of the sea—namely, 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

The upper level of the fog can be plainly seen from the hills in the vicinity. Above the fog level the air is cloudless, and the afternoon temperature ranges from 80 degrees Fahrenheit to 90 degrees Fahrenheit.

Wine and Eggs.

The Duchess Hohenberg of Vienna is reported to have proved the value of red wine as an aid to the production of hens' eggs. The duchess is said to have been advised to try wine on her poultry by Prof. Joubert of Fontainebleau. Selecting a flock of one dozen healthy hens the duchess fed six of them on wine soaked food, at the rate of one glass each a day. The other six had their same ration soaked with water. Within four months the wine-fed hens had laid 148 more eggs than those drinking only water. Eggs of the wine-fed hens are said to be much larger and of a finer quality. The cheapest grade of red wine was used.

TWEED DEFIED BY HOFFMAN

Tammany Boss Could Not Frighten Governor Into Giving Approval to Certain Bill.

As a questioning reporter, the writer had been received by Governor Hoffman, in the executive office of the old capitol, with that dignified courtesy that marked the governor's intercourse with any one, high or low. The question had been asked, and the answer given. The reporter rose, and was making his acknowledgements, when the green baize doors that separated the executive chamber from the outer office were swung violently open and "Boss" Tweed, with red face, flashing eyes and threatening manner, burst into the room.

The governor advanced to meet him, with a heavy frown upon his face.

"I hear that, you're goin' to veto such-and-such a bill, Governor Hoffman?" shouted Tweed.

"Such is my intention, Senator Tweed," replied the governor, very white of face.

"Do you know I'm behind that bill?" raising his voice, threateningly.

"I have been so informed," was the answer.

"See here, you expect to have a second term, don't you?" cried the enraged boss.

"Senator Tweed, I propose to be governor of the state of New York one term and to accept no dictation during it," replied the governor, looking straight into the eyes of the frantic boss and standing up very straight.

Tweed ripped out an oath as he wheeled around and flung himself out of the room.—From "Random Recollections of an Old Political Reporter," by William C. Hudson.
